FINANCIAL.

No. Fl. 267—G. F. 209-17-67, dated 13*th July* 1918.

The following scheme of purchasing Second Indian War Bonds through the Mysore State Life Insurance Department by insured persons is hereby published for general information:

Any officer who has insured his life in the Mysore State Insurance Scheme and whose policy will mature in ordinary course, on or before 30th June 1919, may intimate before the 31st August 1918 to the Secretary, Insurance Committee, that he would like to receive the whole amount of his policy or any part thereof, in War Bonds, appertaining to the Second Indian War Loan of the kind specified by him. On receipt of such intimation, the Secretary, Insurance Committee, will take necessary action, and on the policy maturing in ordinary course or by previous death, the claim will be discharged by the delivery of War Bonds of the kind specified by the insured.

No. F.L. 400—G. F. 209-17-70, dated 17th July 1918.

With a view to afford facilities to the public in the Mysore State to subscribe to the Second Indian War Loan, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja have sanctioned a scheme for purchasing War Bonds 1928, through the Mysore State Life Insurance Department as outlined in the scheme attached.

2. The Secretary, Mysore State Life Insurance Committee, will take all necessary action and issue subsidiary instructions in the matter.

By Order,

J. S. CHAKRAVARTI,

Financial Secretary to Government.

Facilities offered by the Mysore State Life Insurance Department for subscribing to the Second Indian War Loan.

1. Under this scheme any native of Mysore by birth or domicile is enabled to subscribe for Bonds of the Second Indian War Loan for any amount up to Rs. 10,000. The Bonds will be of 1928-5½ per cent and income-tax free. They are redeemable by the Government of India at 105 per sent on 15th September 1928.

2. The Scheme will be worked in the Public Branch of the Mysore State Life Insurance Office. Officials as well as non-officials are allowed to take advantage of it.

3. Any one wishing to benefit by this Scheme should take out a ten-year endowment assurance policy in the Mysore State Life Insurance Department at the ordinary premium rates as per table to be separately published by the Insurance Committee, for a sum equal to the amount of bonds required.

4. As soon as the life policy is accepted by the Insurance Committee and the first premium is paid, bonds will be purchased for the applicant and kept in the custody of the Mysore State Insurance Office.

5. Should a subscriber die at any time during the ten years, the bonds will be immediately transferred to his executors or assignees.

6. If the subscriber survives, then at the end of ten years, the bonds worth 105 per cent and redeemable by the Government of India on 15th September 1928 will be handed over to him.

7. The rules for proposal, medical examination, payment of premium, etc., will be the same as those for ordinary insurance cases in the public branch.
